

The Child Protection Notification System

Out of Hours

Monday - Sunday: 18:00 - 7:00

Saturday, Sunday & Bank Holidays: 9:00 - 17:00

When there is an Immediate Concern for a Child OUT OF HOURS, you may contact Tusla and Request a Safety Search of the CPNS

- 1. Phone: 086 023 0382 - Strictly Confidential. Not for Public Display.
2. Provide information - Child's Surname, Gender, Age Range or Date of Birth.
3. A search of the national CPNS will be conducted by Tusla staff member.
4. Tusla staff member will contact you on the designated number for your location with the results.

Active - The child searched for is currently listed as active having been identified at a Multi-Disciplinary Child Protection Conference as being at ongoing risk of significant harm and is currently the subject of a Child Protection Plan.

Inactive/De-Listed - The child searched for is currently listed as Inactive and was previously (date supplied) identified as being at risk of significant harm.

No Match Found - Based on the information supplied, no match has been found on the system.

The fact that a child is or has been listed on the CPNS is not of itself evidence that the child is at immediate risk in the circumstances in which the person making the enquiry has encountered them. Conversely the fact that a child is not listed cannot be taken as evidence that the child is not at risk. In each case professional judgement, in accordance with professional or agency child protection guidelines, should determine the appropriate course of action.

During office hours, please contact your local Tusla duty social work office.
